

I believe that media corporations should be limited in their ability to own multiple stations or newspapers in broadcast markets. I support locally owned media groups as opposed to national or multinational media groups. I believe these restrictions should be placed on the media corporations for the benefit of American citizens' access to free unbiased information and quality programming.